EU Sport Forum 2013:

Presentation of results:

“Sport 4 Good Governance” Project

30 September 2013

Vilnius

General overview

SPORT 4 GOOD GOVERNANCE

General information

Overview project:

- Lead partner: EOC EU Office (13 partner organisations)
- Project run time (Jan 2012 – Jun 2013)
- Based on Basic Universal Principles of Good Governance of the IOC

Products / results:

- Questionnaire / Analysis
- Video testimonials
- Educational toolkit: “Your key to good governance”
- Training sessions

Questionnaire / Analysis (1)

SPORT 4 GOOD GOVERNANCE

Questionnaire

- Online (137 sport organisations participated)
- Implementation of Basic Universal Principles of Good Governance of the IOC by
  - International, European and national sport federations
  - National Olympic Committees (NOCs)
- Three principles selected:
  1. Structures, regulations and democratic process
  2. Highest level of competence, integrity and ethical standards
  3. Accountability, transparency and control

Questionnaire / Analysis (2)

SPORT 4 GOOD GOVERNANCE

Analysis

- S4GG Index (with sub-indices for different principles)
- Allows to identify strengths and weaknesses of the implementation of principles
- Knowledge of BUPoGG significant and positive influence (15.46 index points)
- Analysis can be found on the website

Educational toolkit (1)

SPORT 4 GOOD GOVERNANCE

Toolkit “your key to good governance”

Content

- Master presentation
- Explanatory notes
- Draft for an executive workshop
- Self-evaluation tool
- Implementation examples
- Best practice example: NOC*NSF
- Interviews

Educational toolkit (2)

SPORT 4 GOOD GOVERNANCE

Toolkit “your key to good governance”

Self-evaluation tool

- 14 questions on 5 principles
- Raise awareness on GG
- Starting point of discussion
- Spider web overview
- Easy to compare

Follow-up

SPORT 4 GOOD GOVERNANCE

- Dissemination of S4GG toolkit
- Partners individually: follow-up activities (e.g. additional training sessions for member organisations, Board members …)
- Within S4GG: network / contact of experts
- Close cooperation with IOC

SPORT 4 GOOD GOVERNANCE

Thank you for your attention!