EUROPEAN COMMISSION
Audiovisual Services

Foreign Affairs Council, 3241st meeting: press conference by Catherine Ashton

Type: Complete press conference Reference: I-078565 Duration: 23:58:19 Lieu:
End production: 27/05/2013 First transmission: 27/05/2013

On 27 May 2013, Catherine Ashton, High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice-President of the EC, held a press conference in the framework of the Foreign Affairs Council at the Justus Lipsius building in Brussels. On this occasion, she talked about Syria, the focus of the discussion, read the declarations that accompanies the Council's conclusions, and participated in a questions/answers session.

Only the original language version is authentic and it prevails in the event of its differing from the translated versions.

TIME	DESCRIPTION	DURATION
23:53:42	Soundbite by Michael Mann, Spokesperson of Catherine Ashton, High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice-President of the EC, (in ENGLISH) giving some introductory words to open the press conference	00:00:15
23:53:57	Soundbite by Catherine Ashton, High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice-President of the EC, (in ENGLISH) talking about their support to the political process in Syria, to the initiatives leading to a possibility of a safe and peaceful future, to the people within Syria and the displaced people currently outside Syria and the neighbouring countries; and reading the declarations that accompanies the Council's conclusions.	00:04:15
23:58:13	Soundbite by Michael Mann (in ENGLISH) opening the questions/answers session	00:00:06
23:58:19	Questions/answers session with Caherine Ashton	00:05:03

Audiovisual Services
European Commission
ec.europa.eu/avservices

Conditions of use

© European Union, 2014