The concrete objectives are:

- Make a precise mapping about the available MOOCs existing in Europe in the area of web developers.
- A clear benefits analysis of MOOCs for developing web talent in Europe.
- A roadmap of actions to increase the use of MOOCs for web talent in Europe.
- The creation of a network of universities and business schools in Europe interested in developing MOOCs for web talent in Europe.
- A roadmap of actions to ensure the MOOCs developed by the members of the network are incorporated in existing platforms, in a new MOOC platform, or in another way.
- The organisation of an EU Conference on MOOCs for web talent to create awareness and present results of the study.
