Filling the jobs of today and tomorrow with new approaches to training and education

Share this

Workshop 1 discussed ICT training and innovative teaching & learning. The morning session focused on the EU Grand Coalition for Digital Jobs [2], and included an update on the Grand Coalition pledges [3] presented at the Conference of 4th & 5th March 2013, as well as new pledges.

The afternoon session concentrated on New ways of learning [4] and examined the challenges, drivers and opportunities of learning in the digital age. It explored how today's learners are equipped for future jobs, how innovation in learning motivates and engages learners of all ages, how to break the boundaries of formal, non-formal and informal learning to boost the skills and knowledge capital of Europe.

What happens now after the DAA?

- Read the report: the Workshop 1 report [5]_ [6]is now available along with the full report of the DAA2013 [7].
