Venue:

Speaker:

Places are filling up for the first Antilope webinar on Tuesday, 25 March 2014, from 16h to 17h CET.

This interactive webinar will feature live audio and video presentations on:

1. the Antilope set of clinical use cases;
2. the quality management approach for eHealth solutions;
3. an overview of available testing tools, and;
4. a suggested approach to quality-label or to certify eHealth solutions.

Presenters will include:

- Vincent van Pelt, NICTIZ
- Morten Bruun-Rasmussen, Mediq
- Milan Zoric, ETSI
- Charles Parisot, IHE Europe

"Due to time constraints the presenters will focus on just the core ideas. A short Q&A will round up this webinar. Don’t miss it. Participation is free but places are going fast", says Ib Johansen, Antilope coordinator.

To sign up, please register [2] before 10.00 CET on 24 March 2014.

You can also attend one of the upcoming regional Antilope summits [3]:

- 3 April 2014, Antilope Summit – "Western Balkan", Ljubljana, Slovenia
- 11 April 2014, Antilope DACH Summit on eHealth Interoperability, Vienna, Austria
- 30 April 2014, Cross-UK and International eHealth Systems Interoperability, London, UK
- 16 May 2014, Antilope Benelux Summit on eHealth Interoperability, Den Haag, Netherlands
- 20 May 2014, Sommet Antilope, Paris, France
- 18 June 2014, Antilope Workshop for Italy and Malta, Treviso, Italy

The Antilope project (www.antilope-project.eu [4]) is a network of core European national and international organisations to promote a common approach for testing and certification of eHealth solutions and services in Europe.
