FERTINNOWA

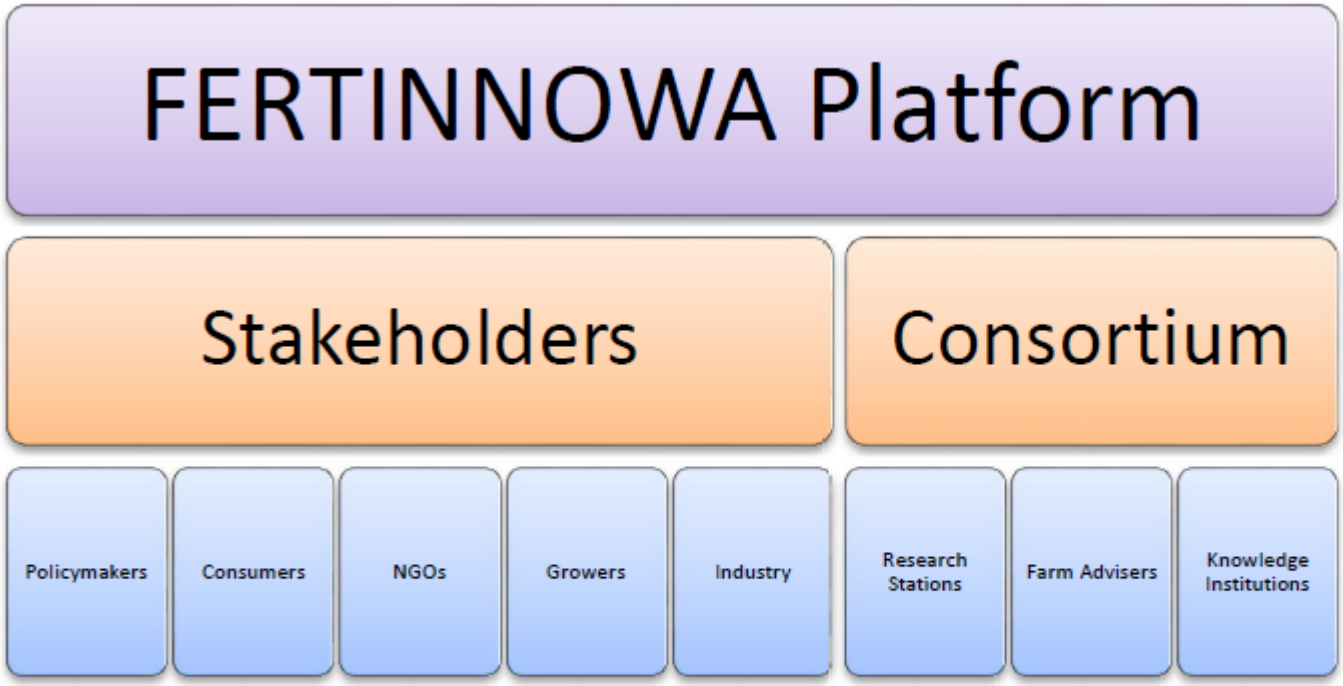

Fig 1.3.3 Structurre of The FERTINNOWA Platform: The Platform exist of the consortium and a various group of stakeholders that consists of policymakers, consumers, environmental NGOs, growers, industry, and the Consortium which is composed of research stations, farm advisory organizations and knowledge institutions

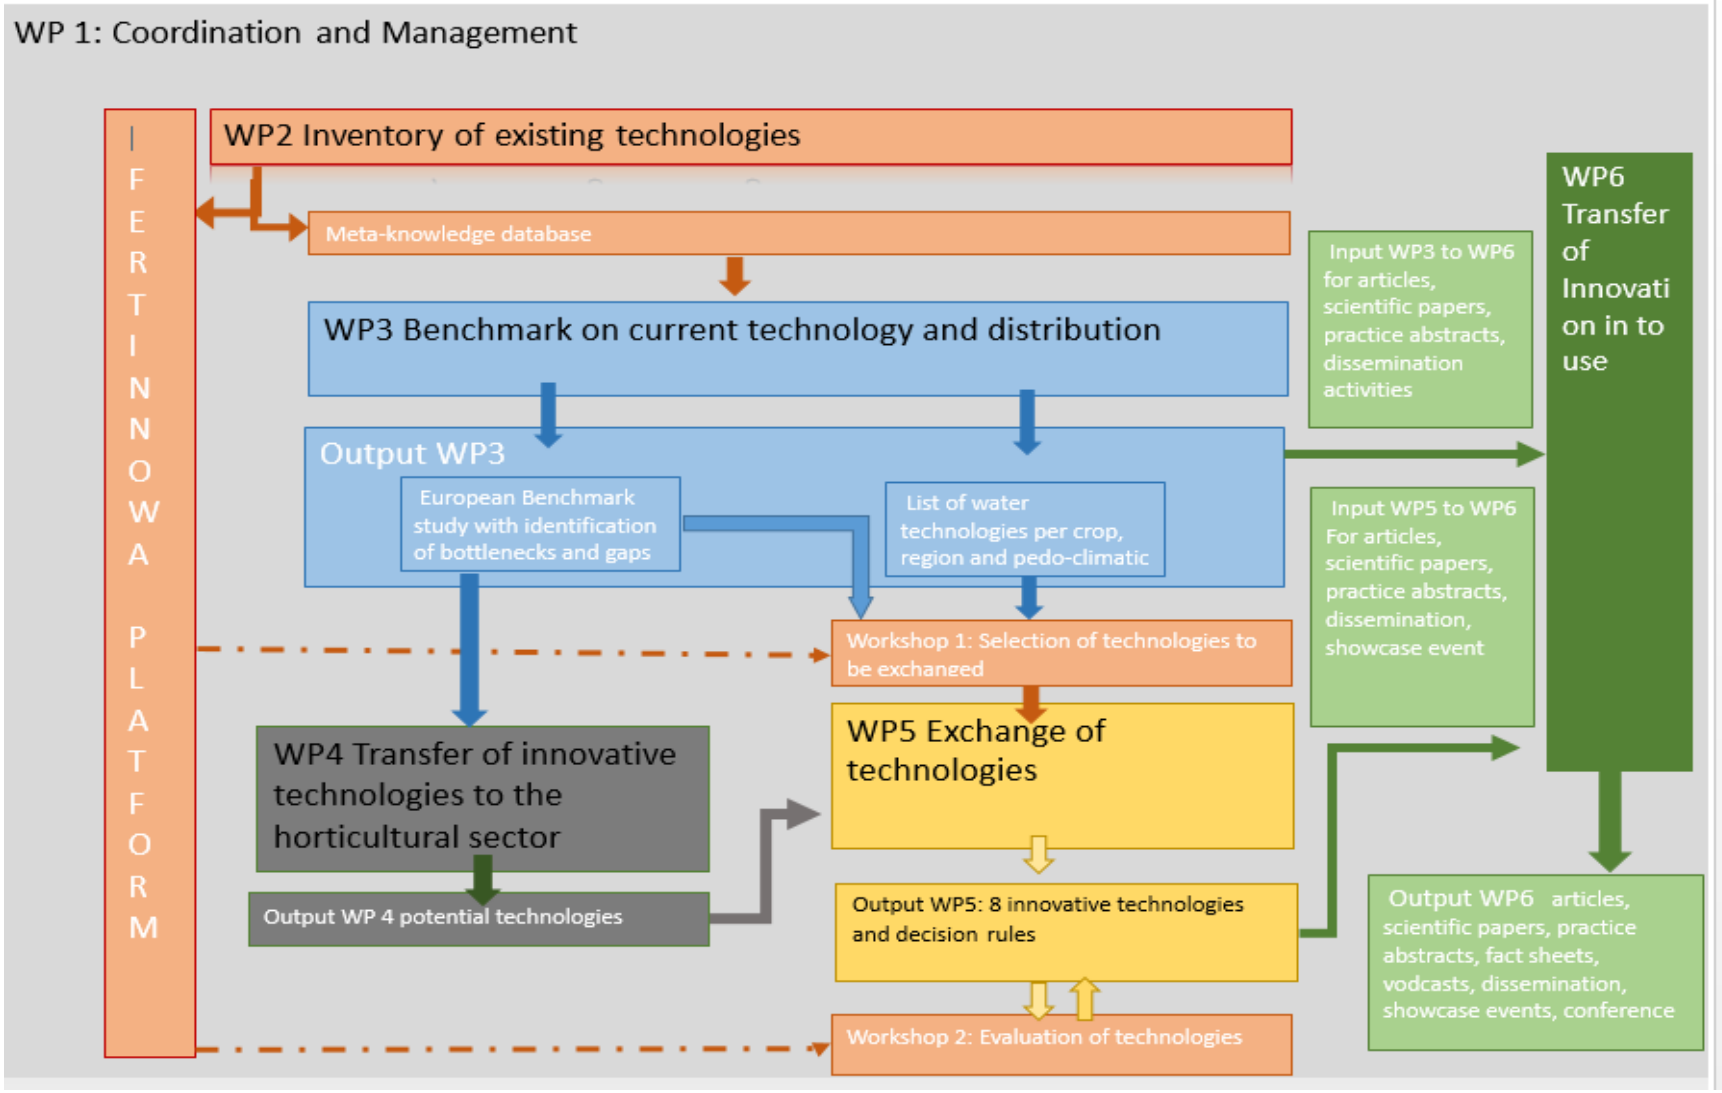
FERTINNOWA



WP 1: Coordination and Management
FERTINNOWA PLATFORM
WP2 Inventory of existing technologies
Meta-knowledge database
WP3 Benchmark on current technology and distribution
Output WP3
European Benchmark study with identification of bottlenecks and gaps
List of water technologies per crop, region and pedo-climatic
Input WP3 to WP6 for articles, scientific papers, practice abstracts, dissemination activities
WP6 Transfer of Innovation in to use
Input WP5 to WP6 For articles, scientific papers, practice abstracts, dissemination, showcase event
Workshop 1: Selection of technologies to be exchanged
WP4 Transfer of innovative technologies to the horticultural sector
WP5 Exchange of technologies
Output WP 4 potential technologies
Output WP5: 8 innovative technologies and decision rules
Output WP6 articles, scientific papers, practice abstracts, fact sheets, vodcasts, dissemination, showcase events, conference
Workshop 2: Evaluation of technologies