Opening session
Moderator: Jacki Davis, Managing Director, Meade Davis Communications

1. Karmenu Vella, EU Commissioner for Environment, Maritime Affairs and Fisheries
2. Russell Smith, Deputy Assistant Secretary for International Fisheries, NOAA

Plenary session "How does Economic Advice contribute to Fisheries Management in Major Fishing Nations?"
Moderator: Jacki Davis, Managing Director, Meade Davis Communications

3. Dale Marsden, Senior Economist, Fisheries and Oceans Canada: How Economic Advice contributes to Fisheries Management in Canada
4. Ms Shinhee Cho, Director General, Distant Water Fisheries Division Ministry of Oceans and Fisheries: How Korea's Fisheries Management has been Drivien by Social and Economic Factors: Historical Perspective and Current State of Play
5. Alain Laurec, Director Fisheries Conservation, EC (ret.): How Economic Advice contributes to Fisheries Management in the CFP
6. Rögnvaldur Hannesson, Prof. Emeritus, Norwegian School of Economics: How Economic Advice contributes to Fisheries Management in Norway
7. Javier Garat Pérez, Europêche: How to integrate Up-to-date Information from the Industry into Fisheries Management.

Parallel session 1: The Tools for Economic Advice: the Experience of the CFP
Moderator: Angel Calvo, DG MARE, European Commission

8. Pavel Salz, Managing Director, Framian: The Tools of Economic Advice in the CFP.
9. Anton Paulrud, Senior Economist, Swedish Agency for Marine and Water Management, Chair of the STECF Working Group on the Annual Economic Report, and Natacha Carvalho, Fisheries Economist at the European Commission's Joint Research Centre: Improvements in the Production and Use of Economic Advice in the CFP, the Annual Economic Report of EU fleets.
10. Evelina Sabatella, Senior Economist, NISEA, DCF national correspondent for Italy: Economic Advice to support Impact Assessments in the CFP, Socio-economic Data Needs and the Role of STECF.
11. Griffin Carpenter, Economics Modeller, New economics Foundation, Bio-economic Modelling for Economic Advice in Fisheries Managemen.

Parallel session 2: Global drivers on Fisheries
Moderator: Miguel Angel Peña Castellot, DG MARE, European Commission

12. James Anderson, Prof. Institute for global Food Systems, U. of Florida: The Use of Indicators to measure and compare Performance in Fisheries Management.
13. Melanie Siggs, Senior Director, EU Oceans Program, Environmental Defense Fund: Main Drivers and Economic Incentives affecting the Sustainability of the Fisheries Sector and likely Impacts in the Future.
14. Gerard Van Balsfoort, President, Pelagic Freezer-trawler Association: EU Industry's View: main Drivers affecting the Industry Performance, likely Impacts in the Future.
15. Alastair Macfarlane, Executive Secretary, International Coalition of Fisheries: Industry's View: Main Drivers affecting the Industry Performance, likely Impacts in the Future, a Global Perspective.

Parallel session 3: Economic evaluation of ecosystem services in fisheries management
Moderator: Ernesto Penas Lado, Director, DG MARE, European Commission

16. Christopher Costello, Prof. Environmental and Resource Economics, UC Santa Barbara: The Economics of Fishery Management and Ecosystem Services.

17. Serge M. Garcia, IUCN advisor: Fisheries Management and Fisheries Biodiversity Impact Mitigation.
18. Douglas Lipton, Senior Scientist for Economics in NOAA's National Marine Fisheries Service and Lee G. Anderson, Prof. Emeritus, University Delaware: The US Experience with an Economic Perspective to Ecosystem Approach in Fisheries.
19. Catarina Grilo, Project officer, Gulbenkian Oceans Initiative: The Valuation of Ecosystem Services and its Role in Fisheries Management.

Plenary Session "What kind of Public Support for Fisheries"

Moderator: Frangiscos Nikolian, Head of Unit, DG MARE A3, European Commission

20. Ragnar Arnason, Professor, School of Social Sciences - Faculty of Economics, University of Iceland: Fisheries Subsidies worldwide: State of play, Trends and Impacts in the Environmental and Economic Sustainability of the Fisheries.
21. John Connelly, President of National Fisheries Institute, USA: Public Support and privately funded Services in the US Fisheries.
22. Pablo Múgica, General Manager, Krustagroup: Innovation in the Fisheries Industry: privately funded Innovation and the Role of Public Support.
23. Jose Manuel Gaiteiro Rey, Subdirector de Pesca de Andalucia, Dirección General de Pesca y Acuicultura, Junta de Andalucía: Public Support to adapt to the Impacts of the Changes of Regulatory Requirements brought by the CFP Reform.

Parallel session 4 "The internationalization of fisheries"

Moderator: Dominique Levieil, Deputy Head of Unit, DG MARE, European Commission

24. Valerie Hickey, Practice Manager, Environment, World Bank: Trading and Sustainable Fisheries Development: Emerging Perspectives.
25. Ivan Lopez van der Veen, Director General en Pesquera Ancora SL: The Internationalization of the EU Fishing Fleets, recent and likely future Evolution.
26. Hyacinthe Cloarec, Buying Director for Marine Products, Metro Ltd: Metro's Strategy to secure access to resources and markets in the light of existing opportunities and threats in the sourcing and trading of sustainable fisheries products.
27. Simon Rilatt, Espersen: Adaptation to the challenges of international competition: horizontal and vertical integration in the fish processing sector.

Parallel session 5: "The Economics of Supply: Where will the Fish come from?"

Moderator: Simkje Kruiderink, DG MARE, European Commission

28. Susan Steele, Authority Chair Sea-Fisheries Protection Authority, National Seafood Centre, Ireland: Developments in the Fish Food Supply. How to learn from existing Bottlenecks and take advantage of Opportunities to secure Sustainable Supply.
29. Guus Pastoors, President of the European Federation of Processors and Importers/Exporters of Fish: How can the Processing Industry face the Challenges of securing appropriate Supplies for its Sustainable Development?
30. Miguel Herrera, Deputy Manager of OPAGAC: Economics of Tuna Fisheries Sustainability

Parallel session 6: "Socio-economic implications of fisheries management"

Moderator: Isabelle Garzon, Head of Unit, DG MARE C3, European Commission

31. Rosa Quintana Carballo, Regional Minister for the Sea and Rural Development, Regional Government of Galicia, Socio-economic Implications of Fisheries Management Decisions in Galicia, Artisanal fishing and shellfish gathering.

32. Jeremy Percy, Executive Director of the Low Impact Fishers of Europe Organisation: The Socio-economic Implications of Fisheries Management Decisions on Small Scale Coastal Fisheries.
33. Rebecca Metzner, Branch Head, Policy, Economics and Institution Branch, FAO : Dealing with the Socio-economic Implication of Fisheries Management in World Fisheries
34. Mario Vella, Executive Chairman, Malta Enterprise: The Economics of Fisheries Competitiveness in Small Island Countries and Isolated Regions.

Panel discussion "The Role of Economic Advice on the Pathway to Sustainable Fisheries"
Moderator: Jacki Davis, Managing Director, Meade Davis Communications

- Serge Garcia, IUCN
- Javier Garat Pérez, Europêche
- Douglas Lipton, National Marine Fisheries Service, NOAA
- Erik Lindebo, Environmental Defense Fund

Closing session

- João Aguiar Machado, Director General, DG MARE, European Commission