

Research meets Industry: Growth - Technology - Markets

The Security Research Event 2012 at the "Security Essen"

25 – 26 September 2012

The Commission is organizing a Security Research Event 2012, back-to-back with an established and globally recognized security trade fair & conference, the "Security Essen" in Germany.

The Commission's participation stands under the motto of "Research meets Industry: Growth - Technology - Markets". The Commission's exhibition includes the presentation of seven EU security research projects; this will be complemented by five discussion panels:

1. A Strategy for the Security Industry
2. Alerting the population
3. Joining forces to secure EU borders
4. Research meets industry – experiences from national programmes
5. Horizon 2020
