The Hague

European Commission

Why did The Hague implement CLLD?

Three important reasons:

- Importance of (re)establishing and/or maintaining trust
- New relationship between citizens – local government
- New challenges that require broad societal support and an increase of citizen engagement

What have we learned so far?

- It takes time (and to bridge this, use ignition money)
- Make sure to invest in building trust. It is a prerequisite for a succesful approach. Avoid rushing this stage.
- No area is the same.
- Don’t get lost in the bureaucratic maze
