

Smart Government – a challenge for IT professionals in administration

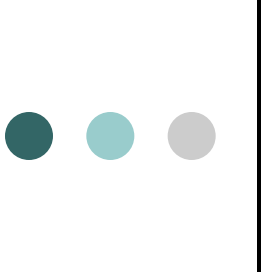

Joanna Malczewska,

Ministry of Administration and Digitisation

Ministerstwo
Administracji
i Cyfryzacji

Brussels, 29 October 2013

Strategic goals and implementation framework

- Smart government within optimum state
- Changing silos mentality
 - integrating strategic documents
 - ensuring cooperation
- Providing strong leaderships
 - Ministry of Administration and Digitisation
 - Informatisation Council
 - Council of the Ministers Committee for Digitisation

eCompetencies -our mission

- Our target

 - administration – general staff and IT personnel
 - citizens – ICT users and professionals

- Organisational framework and documents

 - Minister's Plenipotentiary for Digital Competencies in Administration

 - Program for Integrated Informatisation of the State
 - Operational Program Digital Poland

Modern IT personnel in public administration

- Focus group

 - IT professionals from governmental administration engage strategic and technical personnel

- Priorities

 - strengthen cooperation

 - equalise knowledge and upgrade competencies

 - integrate the profession

 - create horizontal relations

Modern IT personnel in public administration - activities

- Council of Directors
- Postgraduate studies
 - senior personnel and project leaders
 - programmers and system architects
 - tailor-made curricula
 - cooperation-oriented
- Workshops and seminars
 - by administration for administration
- Pilot implementation of eCompetencies Framework

Thank you

joanna.malczewska@mac.gov.pl