

illustrative value of the risk of poverty threshold (set at 60% of the national equivalised median income) for a single person, after social transfers

