| SECTION 4: TYPES OF SUPPORT WITHIN | |
| 4.1 The Culture Programme currently supports co- operation partnerships between cultural operators (at a rate of 50%): Is 50% the most appropriate rate for EU co-financing of co-operation projects? | No - the EU should fund more projects at a lower rate |

| 4.2 EU operating grants currently meet 80% of the running costs of selected European-level organisations (Ambassadors, Advocacy Networks, Structured dialogue platforms). Is 80% the most appropriate level for EU co-financing of European- level organisations? | No - the EU should fund more organisations at a lower level |
|--|---|
| 4.3 EU operating grants currently provided to organisations in support of their running costs are subject to the principle of "degressivity", i.e. they are reduced each year. To what extent does degressivity present a problem for cultural operators? | To a moderate extent |
| 4.4 What problems does your organisation face as a result of degressivity? | |
| 4.5 Could you suggest any further specific ways to simplify the application process and the management of the new programme? | |
| 4.6 How could the dissemination of the results of activities funded under the new programme be supported? | |
| 4.7 Would you like to add anything else on the types of support within the new Culture Programme? | |
