00:01:14	SOUNDBITE by Thorbjørn Jagland, Chair of the Nobel Committee (In English) saying that: We are bound together, living together (repeating in different languages). Congratulation to Europe; in the end we decided to live together and may good government continue to prevail. It is up to us, congratulations to all Europeans.	00:00:34

00:01:48	SOUNDBITE by Herman Van Rompuy, President of the European Council (In English) saying that: after 1945 and united in 1989, has a great capacity to reinvent itself. It is to the next generations to take this common adventure further. I hope they will seize this responsibility with pride. And that they will be able to say, as we here today: Ich bin ein Europäer. Je suis fier d'être européen. I am proud to be European.	00:00:45
00:02:33	SOUNDBITE by José Manuel Barroso, EC President (In English) saying that: The uniqueness of the European project is to have combined the legitimacy of democratic States with the legitimacy of supranational institutions: the European Commission, the European Court of Justice. Supranational institutions that protect the general European interest, defend the European common good and embody the community of destiny. And alongside the European Council, where the governments are represented, we have over the years developed a unique transnational democracy symbolised by the directly elected European Parliament.	00:00:39
