On 17 and 18 January, the Informal Meeting of Ministers for Justice and Home Affairs is taking place in Dublin. The meeting will be attended by the EU's Asylum, Immigration and Interior Ministers on day one, and Justice Ministers the following day. Rather than an overly technical discussion, the meeting offers an informal setting for Ministers to discuss the broader issues relating to Justice and Home Affairs and the direction of EU policy in this area. Discussions focussed on those dossiers which are a priority for the Irish Presidency, including data protection measures, insolvency regulation and the directive on the freezing and confiscation of proceeds of crime.
