

Foreign Affairs Council, 3241st meeting: press conference by Catherine Ashton

Type: Complete press conference Référence: I078565 Durée: 09:47 Lieu: Brussels - Council/Justus Lipsius

On 27 May 2013, Catherine Ashton, High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice-President of the EC, held a press conference in the framework of the Foreign Affairs Council at the Justus Lipsius building in Brussels. On this occasion, she talked about Syria, the focus of the discussion, read the declarations that accompanies the Council's conclusions, and participated in a questions/answers session.

HEURE	DESCRIPTION	DUREE
00:00:00	Soundbite by Michael Mann, Spokesperson of Catherine Ashton, High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice-President of the EC, (in ENGLISH) giving some introductory words to open the press conference	00:00:15
00:00:15	Soundbite by Catherine Ashton, High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice-President of the EC, (in ENGLISH) talking about their support to the political process in Syria, to the initiatives leading to a possibility of a safe and peaceful future, to the people within Syria and the displaced people currently outside Syria and the neighbouring countries; and reading the declarations that	00:04:15

	the deliberations that accompanies the Council's conclusions.
00:04:31	Soundbite by Michael Mann (in ENGLISH) opening the questions/answers session	00:00:06
00:04:37	Questions/answers session with Caherine Ashton	00:05:03

Audiovisual Service
European Commission
ec.europa.eu/avservices

Terms of use