

JAS GAWRONSKI

Born in Wien 7/2/1936.

- 1958 : Law's degree at the University of Roma
- 1959-1962 : Correspondent on Eastern Europe affairs for the daily "Il Giorno", based in Warsaw.

- 1962-1966 : Producer of journalistic programmes for RAI (Italian State Television) in Vietnam, India, United States and Eastern Europe.

- 1966-1977 : RAI Chief Correspondent in New York.
- 1977-1979 : RAI Chief Correspondent in Paris.

- 1979-1981 : RAI Chief Correspondent in Moscow and Warsaw.
- 1981-1994 : Member of the European Parliament.
- 1985-1992 : Works on political and scientific programmes with Canale 5 TV (biggest Italian private television)

- 1989 : Works for daily "La Stampa".
- 1994-1995 : Spokesman for the Prime Minister Silvio Berlusconi.

- 1996-1999 : Member of the Italy's Senate.

- 1999-2009 : Member of the European Parliament

He has published articles in the most important Italian and foreign dailies and weeklies, among them the "New York Times" and the "International Herald Tribune".

Has written three books: "Primi Piani", 1989, a collection of interviews with world leaders "The World of John Paul II", 1994, containing an interview with the Pope and 'Vinti e Vincitori', 1999.