(*) Commission decisions: the Commission issues the following types of decisions – as defined in the Council Regulation (EC) No 2015/1589 of 13 July 2015 laying down detailed rules for the application of Article 108 of the EC Treaty (Official Journal L 248, 24.09.2015, page 9) - https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/?uri=uriserv:OJ.L_.2015.248.01.0009.01.ENG

After a preliminary examination (phase I decisions):

1. decision does not constitute aid - where the Commission, after a preliminary examination, finds that the notified measure does not constitute aid - art. 4(2)
2. decision not to raise objections - where the Commission, after a preliminary examination, finds that no doubts are raised as to the compatibility with the common market of a notified measure, in so far as it falls within the scope of Article 87(1) of the Treaty - art. 4(3)
3. decision to initiate the formal investigation procedure - where the Commission, after a preliminary examination, finds that doubts are raised as to the compatibility with the common market of a measure - art. 4(4)

After a formal investigation procedure (phase II decisions):

1. decision does not constitute aid (after formal investigation procedure) - where the Commission, after formal investigation procedure, finds that, where appropriate following modification by the Member State concerned, the notified measure does not constitute aid - art. 9(2)
2. positive decision - where the Commission, after formal investigation procedure, finds that, where appropriate following modification by the Member State concerned, the doubts as to the compatibility of the notified measure with the common market have been removed - art. 9(3)
3. conditional decision - where the Commission attached to a positive decision conditions subject to which an aid may be considered compatible with the common market or laid down monitoring obligations - art. 9(4)
4. negative decision without recovery - where the Commission finds that the aid is not compatible with the common market and shall not be put into effect - art. 9(5)
5. negative decision with recovery - where the Commission finds that the aid is not compatible with the common market and, as it was unlawful aid, the Commission decides that the Member State concerned shall take all necessary measures to recover the aid from the beneficiary - art. 9(5) with art. 16(1)
6. decision to close formal investigation procedure following the withdrawal of notification – art. 12(2)

As regards existing aid, the Commission may propose "appropriate measures" to the Member State concerned – art. 22

Where the Member State accepts these measures, the acceptance is recorded by the Commission and they become binding upon the Member State – art. 23

Where the Member State concerned does not accept the appropriate measures, the Commission may open the formal investigation procedure (see above) – art. 4 (4).
