Consultation on the Follow up to the Green Paper on Consumer Collective Redress

1. Objective

The objective of this consultation, including the hearing, is to receive and assess the views of stakeholders and public authorities concerning the follow up to the Green Paper on Consumer Collective Redress.

As this consultation and the live webstreaming and/or audio and video recording of speakers and participants collects and further processes personal data, Regulation (EC) 45/2001, of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data, is applicable.

Your data are recorded and stored as long as follow-up actions are needed in the context of your contribution.

2. Who has access to your contribution and to whom is it disclosed?

For transparency purposes, the contributions, including your name and position in your organisation, will be communicated to the public, in particular through the Health and Consumer Protection web pages on Europa at http://ec.europa.eu/consumers/redress_cons/collective_redress_en.htm

Received contributions, together with the identity of the contributor, will be published on the Internet, unless the contributor objects to publication of the personal data on the grounds that such publication would harm his or her legitimate interests. In this case the contribution will be published in anonymous form.

3. Contact Information

In case you have questions or requests concerning the information submitted by you to this consultation, please contact Directorate-General for Health and Consumer Protection, using the following functional mailbox:
