Abstract of the written contribution (research essay/study/lecture notes, hereafter called 'paper'):.....
..... (title of paper)

"I,..... (name of co-author)
..... (official address)

co-author of the above paper

hereby appoint

Mr/Ms(name of representing author)

- to act on my behalf for the purpose of submitting to the European Union the proposal of the above paper in reply to the call for tenders referred to above
- to sign on my behalf the related contract (*) for the drafting, submitting and presenting of the paper

I agree, on terms to be set out in the contract (*):

- that the European Union acquires ownership of the results and that all economic rights related to the exploitation of the aforementioned paper will be ceded to the European Commission, which may use, publish, assign or transfer them as it sees fit, without geographical or other limitation;
- to observe the different terms and conditions laid down in the non-exclusive license granted by the Commission to the authors under contract order and which will take effect 3 months after the approval of the final paper. In particular, I agree to not request or accept any form of remuneration in connection with the exploitation of the license. Any publication under the license shall furthermore be subject to:
 - the acknowledgement of the European Union's ownership of the results being explicitly acknowledged and reference being made to the related contract
 - the publication specifically indicating that the views presented do not necessarily represent those of the European Union;
 - three copies of any further publications being sent to the contracting authority.
- that the fee for the services rendered under the contract will be paid into the account of the aforementioned representing author.
