

EUROPEAN COMMISSION
DIRECTORATE-GENERAL FOR ENERGY AND TRANSPORT

Matthias RUETE
Director-General

Career of the Director-General

Nationality:	German
Education:	1984: Dr. juris., University of Giessen, Law faculty 1978-1979: LLM (Lon), University of London 1975-1978: Assessor iuris (Second State Exam in Law), Government of Hessen 1968-1975: Law degree and bar studies, university of Marburg, Köln, Berlin, Giessen
Professional experience in the European Institutions:	2006-date: Director-General «Energy and Transport» DG 2005: Director «Enterprise and Industry» DG , «Coordination for Competitiveness» July 2003-December 2004: Director «Enlargement» DG, «Bulgaria, Romania, Turkey and coordination» May 2000-July 2003: Director «Enlargement» DG, «Coordination of negotiations, pre-accession and financial instruments» 1998-2000: Director «Energy and Transport» DG, «International relations, trans-European transport and infrastructure networks» 1995-1998: Member, afterwards deputy head of cabinet – Cabinet of the Commissioner for Research, Innovation and Education. 1993-1995: Head of Unit «Industry» DG, «Industrial co-operation» 1987-1993: Administrator, afterwards assistant to Director-General «Internal Market and industrial Affairs» DG 1986-1987: Administrator «Social Affairs» DG
Professional experience before joining the European Institutions:	1982-1985: Visiting Lecturer in Law, University of Warwick, Coventry, UK 1979-1982: Scientific Collaborator/Assistant/lecturer at the two Institutes for Public Law (Constitutional; European; International Public Law)