

Roland SCHENKEL

Nationality: German

Born 6 August 1947, married, 3 children

Education: Study of Physics at Technical University Karlsruhe (1968-1973)
PhD University Saarbrücken, Germany (1973-1976)

Career:

1976-1977	Post-doctorate at Centre d'Etude Nucléaires (CEA), Grenoble
1977-1979	Kernbrennstoff-Wiederaufarbeitungsgesellschaft Karlsruhe
1979-1994	Euratom Safeguards Office, Luxembourg: sector head for safeguards concepts and strategies and technical support/logistics
1994-2000	Adviser to the Director and Head of Programme Office at the Institute for Transuranium Elements, Karlsruhe
2000-2002	Director of the Institute for Transuranium Elements, Karlsruhe
2002-2004	Deputy Director General, DG Joint Research Centre
09/2004-11/2005	Acting Director General, DG Joint Research Centre

Current post (since November 2005)

Director General, DG Joint Research Centre

Other activities & publications:

Member of various international programme and evaluation committees; about 100 publications in the area of basic actinide research, nuclear safeguards and nuclear fuel cycles.

He was rewarded a Doctor honoris causa by the Russian Academy of Science in 2002.