

Conference
28 September
2011

Brussels, Belgium
Room A. De Gasperi
Charlemagne Building, 2nd floor
170 Rue de la Loi/Wetstraat

“Scientific Support for Food Security and Global Governance”

How to reach the venue?

By Metro

- Metro station «Schuman» Line 1 or 5 – exit indicating «Berlaymont and Charlemagne»

From the airport

- Bus n° 12 - direction «Brussels City», get off at bus stop «Rond-point Schuman» (see image)

Train

- Take the train towards Brussels, get off at «Central Station», then take the metro, line 1 or 5, get off at «Schuman» - exit indicating «Berlaymont and Charlemagne»

For more information on timetables and transport please check: www.stib.be

Access to the building

For security reasons access to Charlemagne building will be controlled.
Please bring the passport or identity card that you referred to in your on-line registration.

Welcome/Registration Desk

The Welcome desk will be open on 28 September from 08h30 to 18h00.
The registration desk is located to the left of the entrance of the building.

Conference language

There will be simultaneous interpretation provided from and into FR, DE, EN, IT, ES, PT and PL

Compulsory Registration

There are no registration fees for this conference but you are required to register at:
<https://web.jrc.ec.europa.eu/registration/>

Travel and hotel accommodation

Participants must make their own arrangements for travel and hotel accommodation.
The European Commission will not reimburse these expenses.
Information on accommodation in Brussels can be found on one of the following websites:
<http://www.brures.com>
<http://www.hotels.be>
<http://www.hotels.com>
<http://www.booking.com>

Lunch

On 28 September, the European Commission invites all participants to lunch at the venue.

Exhibition

The JRC will showcase its research activities related to food security on a digital globe.
This exhibition will be located near the conference room.

Programme content

For further information about the content of the conference, please visit the following website
<http://www.jrc.ec.europa.eu/events/foodsecurity>