

POLISH PRESIDENCY OF THE EU COUNCIL 2011

JRC-EASAC joint event including the launch of the report

"Impact of engineered nanomaterials on human health: considerations on benefit-risk assessment"

18 October 2011
15:30-19:30

Royal Academies for Science and the Arts of Belgium
1 rue Ducale, 1000 Brussels

Draft Agenda

15:30 Registration

15:50 Introduction: Elke Anklam, Director JRC-IHCP Institute for Health and Consumer Protection

16:00 Presentation of the JRC-EASAC report on "Impact of engineered nanomaterials on human health: considerations on benefit-risk assessment" and panel discussion

– Peter Gehr, President of Steering Committee NRP 64 (National Research Programme "Opportunities and risks of nanomaterials")

16:15 Panel debate with representatives from:

– Dr. Gernot Klotz, Executive Director - Research and Innovation, CEFIC, European Chemical Industry Council

– Monique Goyens, Director General, BEUC, The European Consumers' organisation

– Dr. Willem K.A. Penning, DG Health & Consumers, European Commission

Moderator: Thomas Friederich, Journalist

Concluding remarks: Elke Anklam, Director JRC-IHCP

16:50 Coffee break

17:00 JRC-EASAC collaboration agreement:

– Polish Presidency, Polish Ministry of Science and Higher Education

– Dominique Ristori, Director General of the EC Joint Research Centre

– Sir Brian Heap, President of the European Academies Science Advisory Council

– Dr. Paul Rübzig, Member of the European Parliament, Chairman of Scientific Technology Options Assessment (STOA) panel

Signature of letter of intent by Sir Brian Heap and Dominique Ristori

18:00 Reception