

Jaroslava KOVÁČOVÁ

Jaroslava Kovacova received her degree in Public Economy at the Masaryk University in Brno, Czech Republic. Her doctoral research is linked to the fulfillment of Lisbon Strategy objectives in the field of research, development and innovation.

Mrs. Kovacova is employed at the Ministry of Education, Science, Research and Sport of the Slovak Republic in the Science and Technology Division. She represents the Slovak Republic on the European level in the Board of Governors of JRC, in the Strategic Forum for International Scientific and Technological Cooperation (a dedicated configuration of ERAC), and is also in charge of EUREKA, COST and the NATO SPS programmes in the Slovak Republic.

At the national level she is responsible for bilateral cooperation in the field of science and technology with the People's Republic of China, the Russian Federation, Japan, South Korea, and Italy.

Mrs. Kovacova's areas of expertise are macroeconomics, R&D policies, eLearning and lifelong learning, coaching, leadership and personal development.

She is an active member of the Research Network 1 - Development of ICT skills, e-learning and the culture of e-learning in Lifelong Learning (ASEM – Education and Research Hub for Lifelong Learning, Denmark).