

Dear sirs/madam,

I would like to ask the commission to strongly consider the possibility of signing the initiatives digitally (online), maybe using the various (?) digital identification methods as used by the member states, like DigiD in the Netherlands, to verify the identity of the signing individual. Making this possible reduces the logistics of issuing an initiative significantly.

Kind regards,

--

Stijn Minderhoud