

From: Christian Duhaut [cduhaut@eurotrans.fr]
Sent: mercredi 25 novembre 2009 14:00
To: SG EU2020
Cc: jlfouquart@www.netvolution.fr; ian.sisley@wanadoo.fr;
econoconsultant@gmail.com
Subject: Re: CONSULTATION ON THE FUTURE "EU 2020" STRATEGY

Christian Duhaut a écrit :

- > Dear Sir,
- >
- > Following your consultation on EU 2020 strategy, we would like to add
- > one priority.
- >
- > 1. Creating Sustainable redevelopment with an efficient spatial
- > planning policy
- >
- > Following the ESDP policy approved by the Parliament in 1999, we
- > should go further in this way.
- >
- > To get more traditionnal manufacturing and greener transport, we need
- > a better spatial planning. We can save rail access on old industrial
- > plants and implement new transport systems.
- >
- > The opportunities to implement new green industries along the canals
- > are very interesting as we can expect along the future canal
- > Seine-Escaut in France. It should be part of the new industrial policy
- > to promote.
- >
- > ESDP is also good to optimize and save natural ressources and
- > heritage all over Europe .
- >
- >
- > Following your consultation on EU 2020 strategy, we would like also to
- > add one "make it happen".
- >
- >
- > 1. Make it Happen: Supporting transparency and efficiency proven policies
- >
- > *EU must get a stronger policy tool laboratory to test the efficiency
- > of reforms before to promote them.
- >
- > During the 10 last years, EU with a low budget, lost its expertise and
- > experts in economics. Lot of tools promoted were not enough efficient
- > and sure, like motorways of the seas, green-fuel...
- >
- >
- > Even if EUROSTATS is getting better, EU don't produce strong research
- > in economics and we get more and more often our information from other
- > international sources (OECD, IMF...)
- >

> We need EU as a leader in economic and environment policy evaluation > know how. Regular audit and impact evaluation of all policy tool and > program should be promote and implement in the 27 countries.

>

> Results of these evaluation should be the energy of futher european > progress like in airline industry.

>

> With best regards

>

> *

>> Christian DUHAUT President Reseach Director EUROTRANS Consultants SAS

>> 104 avenue John Kennedy

>> 62200 BOULOGNE-SUR-MER - FRANCE

>> Tel : (33) 3 21 30 99 22 / GSM : (33) 6 14 48 84 67 / Fax : (33) 3 21

>> 30 99 28

>> www.eurotrans.eu <<http://www.eurotrans.fr>>

>