VACANCY NOTICE FOR THE POST OF
PROJECT OFFICER - Health programme
(Ref.: EAHC/CA/IV/2010/002)

The Executive Agency for Health and Consumers invites applications for positions as contract agents:

Project Officer - Health programme
(Function Group IV)

THE EXECUTIVE AGENCY FOR HEALTH AND CONSUMERS

The Executive Agency for Health and Consumers (hereinafter referred to as the EAHC) implements the second Public Health Programme, adopted by Decision No 1350/2007/EC of the European Parliament and the Council of 23 October 2007, the Consumer Programme, adopted by Decision 1926/2006/EC of the European Parliament and the Council on 18 December 2006, and the Better Training for Safer Food initiative, measured by Regulation (EC) No 882/2004 and Directive 2000/29/EC.

Excluding tasks related to programme evaluation, monitoring of legislation, or any other action which could come under the exclusive competence of the Commission, the EAHC is entrusted with the following tasks:

- Managing all the phases in the lifetime of specific projects, in the context of implementing the programme on public health and the necessary checks to that end, taking the relevant decisions where the Commission has empowered it to do so;
- Adopting the instruments of budget execution for revenue and expenditure and carrying out, where the Commission has empowered it to do so, all the operations necessary for the management of the Community programme and, in particular, those linked to the award of contracts and grants;
- Providing logistical, scientific and technical support, in particular by organising technical meetings (management of expert working groups), preparatory studies, seminars or conferences.
- Ensuring a high level of consumer protection, through improved information on consumer-related data, better consultation and better representation of consumers' interests, and enhancing effective application of consumer protection rules through cooperation between authorities and key consumer organisations, disseminating information, education and dispute resolution.

- Managing Commission's initiative "Better Training for Safer Food", which sets a Community training strategy in the areas of food law, feed law, animal health and animal welfare rules, as well as plant health rules.

The EAHC is established in Luxembourg.

Additional information is available on the following website:

JOB DESCRIPTION

The jobholder will report to EAHC's Head of unit, responsible for the Health projects. He/she will be mainly responsible for managing all phases in the lifetime of specific projects or contracts, from the publication of calls to final payments and the dissemination of results. The job includes administrative processing of a high number of files within strict deadlines to demanding quality standards and requires the ability to work under pressure.

These projects will concern actions covered by the Health Programme (<http://ec.europa.eu/eahc/health/health.html>) aiming through projects, tenders and other actions it funds, to improve the level of physical and mental health and well-being of EU citizens and reduce health inequalities throughout the Community.

The jobholder will in particular:

- Monitor the implementation of contracts and grants agreements, liaise with beneficiaries, approve their reports, including in collaboration with external experts;
- Contribute to the publication and publicity of the calls;
- Participate in the opening, evaluation and negotiation of proposals for grants;
- Participate in the preparation and evaluation of calls for tender;
- Finalize grant agreements in collaboration with financial officers;
- Disseminate project results, including through workshops;
- Contribute to horizontal tasks of the health unit, e.g. communication, managing the network of national focal points, representing EAHC at national info days, evaluation of EAHC's activities, improvements of EAHC's working methods, etc.

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE REQUIRED

A. Eligibility criteria

Candidates will be considered eligible for selection on the basis of the following formal criteria to be fulfilled by the deadline for applications:

1. Completed university studies of at least three years in pharmacy/toxicology/molecular and cellular biology/medicine/public health, health economics or other social or scientific disciplines related to the field, attested by a diploma and appropriate professional experience of at least one year. (Only study titles that have been awarded in EU Member States or that are subject to the equivalence certificates issued by the authorities in the said Member States shall be taken into consideration.)
2. To have a thorough knowledge of at least two official languages of the European Union;

APPOINTMENT AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

The jobholder will be appointed on the basis of a reserve list established by the Selection Committee. It will be established following an open selection procedure organised in three steps as follows:

1. The Selection Committee will check applications against eligibility and formal criteria;
2. The Selection Committee will analyse the motivation letter and the CV's of eligible applicants with reference to the selection criteria; it will establish a shortlist for those matching best the needs of the EAHC;
3. The Selection Committee will interview the short listed candidates and, where necessary, organise written tests. On the basis of the interview and test results, the Selection Committee will establish a reserve list of suitable candidates.

From this list, suitable candidates will be recruited upon decision of the Executive Agency's Appointing Authority. Candidates should note that inclusion on the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment.

Jobholders will be recruited as members of the contract staff, in function group IV, pursuant to Article 3a of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Communities and for a maximum period of 5 years, with the possibility of renewal within the limits of the determined life of the Agency. Under certain conditions, a second renewal may be granted with undetermined duration. The precise classification in grade will depend on the number of years of professional experience acquired after the degree giving access to the post. For further information on working conditions of contract staff see the web site of the European Personnel Selection Office (EPSO) at: <http://europa.eu/epso/>

The reserve lists will be valid for 12 months from the date of their establishment and may be used for other positions with similar requirements to those of the present selection procedure. The validity of the reserve lists may be extended if the Agency's Director so decides.

The place of employment will be Luxembourg where the Agency has its premises.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Applications not fulfilling the criteria set out in this vacancy notice will not be considered. It is the responsibility of applicants to complete their online registration before the deadline for submission of applications. The Agency strongly advises not to wait until the last few days before the deadline for applying, since heavy internet traffic or connection difficulties could lead to problems. Candidates should note that it will no longer be possible to register applications after the deadline for submission.

On completion of their online registrations, applicants will receive a confirmation number. This number confirms that the Agency registered the application and should be kept by candidates as it will serve as the application's reference number. Receipt of the confirmation number closes the online application process and confirms that the Agency registered the data entered by the applicant. If you do not receive a number, your application was not registered! You can update your application until the closing date without modifying the data in your e-CV.

It is recommended that candidates fill in the attached 'Eligibility and selection criteria grid' and send it by e-mail to: EAHC-HR@ec.europa.eu , referring in the subject to the confirmation number received upon registration of the application.

Candidates prevented from registering online, should request (by e-mail to: EAHC-HR@ec.europa.eu) a paper version of the application form. This form should be completed, signed and returned by registered mail before the closing date for applying (postmark date as evidence). Candidates are invited to indicate in their on-line application any special arrangements that may be required if invited to attend an interview.

Deadline for applications: 12 February 2010 12:00 (GMT Luxembourg time)

If at any stage in the procedure it is established that any of the information a candidate provided is incorrect, the candidate in question will be disqualified.

Where there is a problem with the above link, candidates should try to copy and paste the link into their Web application and try connecting again.

APPEAL PROCEDURE

A candidate who feels that a mistake has been made regarding eligibility of his/her application may ask to have it reconsidered by sending, within 20 calendar days of the date on the email notifying the rejection of his/her application, a request for review, quoting the number of the selection procedure concerned to the Chairman of the Selection Committee at the following address EAHC-HR@ec.europa.eu. The Selection Committee will reconsider the application and notify the candidate of its decision within 45 calendar days of receipt of the letter.

DATA PROTECTION

The purpose of processing of the data submitted by candidates is to manage the applications in view of a possible pre-selection and recruitment at the Executive Agency for Health and Consumers. The personal information requested from candidates will be processed in line with Regulation (EC) N°45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data.
