The European Commission has provided €70 million in humanitarian aid to date in response to humanitarian needs inside Libya and on the Libyan borders since the onset of the crisis. The main partners and the aid they have or are providing are listed below:

INTERNATIONAL ORGANISATION FOR MIGRATION (IOM)
For emergency assistance including transportation and evacuation of migrants. Funds also contribute to the maintenance of a regular database tracking the arrivals and evacuation of migrants.

UNITED NATIONS HIGH COMMISSION FOR REFUGEES (UNHCR)
For the setting up and management of transit camps on the Tunisian and Egyptian borders with Libya. The funds provided also covered the evacuation of migrants.

RED CROSS AND RED CRESCENT MOVEMENT (INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE OF THE RED CROSS - ICRC AND INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF THE RED CROSS – IFRC)
For the provision of food, water, sanitation and hygiene measures, as well as basic medical care inside Libya and along the Libyan borders. While ICRC focuses on the conflict affected areas, IFRC is predominantly working in the border area receiving migrants. Both work in support of local Red Crescent societies.

TELECONSANS FRONTIÈRES (TSF)
For the provision of access to telecommunications for migrants and refugees allowing them to get in touch with their families in their home country. TSF also sets up communication networks for humanitarian actors on the border in Tunisia and inside Libya if required.

UNITED NATIONS OFFICE FOR THE COORDINATION OF HUMANITARIAN AID (OCHA)
For information management and coordination of humanitarian actors on the ground in Egypt, Tunisia and Libya.

WORLD FOOD PROGRAMME
For the reduction of food insecurity and stabilization of the nutritional status of residents, internally displaced persons (IDPs), returnees, refugees and other vulnerable groups in Libya. The funding also contributes to provide the humanitarian community with adequate logistics capacity, coordination mechanisms and air transportation to deliver relief aid to the beneficiaries.

ACTED
For the set up of a humanitarian hub in Misrata aiming to strengthen and support the emergency response capacity of the aid community. ACTED also provides emergency distributions of non-food items (NFIs), support to the bread production, psycho-social activities and resumption of the livelihoods by fostering cash injection and economic opportunities.

FEDERATION SUISSE DE DEMINAGE AND DANISH CHURCH AID
For the provision of humanitarian demining to identify risk areas and also the disposal of explosive ordnance. FSD and DCA also provide mine risk education (MRE) for the conflict affected population.

MERLIN
For the improvement of health care for conflict casualties and refugees in Libya (Nafusa Mountains and North-West) and South-East Tunisia by increasing availability of and access to essential healthcare services.

INTERNATIONAL MEDICAL CORPS
For the provision of emergency rehabilitation services to war-wounded Libyans. Through this operation, IMC supports physical rehabilitation, integrated psycho-social activities and training for medical staff.
