PART C. Description of the Joint Programme

C.1.a For EMMCs ONLY

The full programme covers _____ study months (excluding any academic break of one month or more) and corresponds to a total of _____ ECTS credits (or equivalent; if another system is used, please specify under the relevant award criteria)

The joint programme will start in _____ (month) of year "n" and will end in _____ (month) of year "n + _____"; the end of the programme includes the graduation ceremony and communication of final results to the students; the end date cannot be later than October of "year n+1" – for one year EMMCs - or "year n+2" – for 2 years EMMCs - following the beginning of the programme.

During their EMMC period, the students will study in at least _____ different partner organisations.

Not counting the first "home university", the minimal mobility for each student will be _____ months (corresponding to _____ ECTS credits or equivalent)

C.1.b For EMJD ONLY

The joint programme will be mainly laboratory based / non laboratory based
(If the proposal is selected, the confirmation of laboratory or non laboratory based research will be applied individually to each fellowship candidate proposed by the consortium)

If applicable, the joint programme training / teaching period will last _____ (specify months, days, hours and/or ECTS credits).

Is the EMJD directly linked to:

- an EMMC? _____; if yes, please specify hereafter the EMMC title and acronym: _____
- a Marie Curie Initial Training Network (ITN)? _____; if yes, please specify hereafter the ITN title, name of the contracting organisation and agreement number _____

During their EMJD period, the candidates will visit at least _____ different partner organisations.

Not counting the first "home university", the minimal mobility for each doctoral candidate will be _____ months.

C.2. NUMBER OF STUDENTS / DOCTORAL CANDIDATES PLANNED TO BE ENROLLED IN THE FIRST EDITION OF THE JOINT PROGRAMME

(applies to all students/doctoral candidate, with or without EM scholarship/fellowship)

EU Students / doctoral candidates: _____

Third Country Students / doctoral candidates : _____

C.3 STUDY AREA / DOCTORAL RESEARCH DISCIPLINE

Main Area (see annex 2 for List of thematic study fields):

(if not listed please specify hereafter) _____

Second Area (see annex 2 for List of thematic study fields): _____

(if not listed please specify hereafter) _____

Third Area (see annex 2 for List of thematic study fields): _____

(if not listed please specify hereafter) _____

C.4 STUDENT / DOCTORATE CANDIDATE PARTICIPATION COSTS IN THE JOINT PROGRAMME

Please indicate the estimated student/doctorate candidate participation costs in the joint programme during the first edition of the programme (these will be the costs advertised on the joint programme website in case of approval). Please refer to sections 4.4 (for EMMCs) or 5.5 (for EMJD) for the programme's maximum contribution to these costs

Participation costs for a European student/doctorate candidate (in euros)

Participation costs for a Third-Country student/doctorate candidate (in euros)

C.5 SUMMARY DESCRIPTION OF THE JOINT PROGRAMME

(max. 400 words)

Please provide a summary description of your joint programme covering aspects such as its objectives and main characteristics (content/research area, type of organisations and countries involved, duration, mobility options available for students/doctoral candidates, language(s), type of degrees awarded and any other information considered relevant for the description of the course/programme)

If your application is successful, this summary will be used as the official description of the Masters course/doctorate programme. It will be part of your grant agreement and published on the internet. You are therefore kindly requested to formulate it clearly and carefully and to provide this summary in English, French or German.

PART D: Technical Capacity

Consortium experience of the area of joint programmes and the specific study/research field of the project

- Provide a list of projects/activities implemented by the consortium organisations in relation with the proposal (title, duration, funding programme, partners involved, etc.)
- Provide (in annex to the application) the CVs of the main actors (/team leaders) in the consortium participating organisations

ANNEXES

A. ERASMUS MUNDUS MASTERS COURSES (EMMC)

A.1 Course content (25% of the max. score)

Under this criterion applicants should specify/describe/justify,

- A.1.1 the needs analysis (including in socio-economic terms) of the joint programme taking into account the current state of the art in the field(s) concerned; and;
- A.1.2 the objectives of the EMMC and its possible contribution to European university excellence and European competitiveness; its added value compared with courses that already exist in the same field at national and international level
- A.1.3 the academic quality (including the quality of the teaching staff) and structure of the EMMC and in particular the appropriateness and added value of the mandatory mobility periods for the students; if applicable, the added value of the third-country organisations to the EMMC objectives and content;
- A.1.4 the quality and relevance of the learning outcomes, acquired competencies and professional outcomes in the perspective of the students' future academic and/or professional careers;
- A.1.5 the joint programme interaction with the professional (economic/scientific/cultural) sectors concerned and, if applicable, the role of associated members in this respect; if applicable, reference should be made to work placements arrangements and/or research activities in the field;

A.2 Course integration (25% of the max. score)

Under this criterion applicants should specify/describe/justify,

- A.2.1 the extent to which the joint programme is truly integrated (i.e. based on a jointly developed curriculum or composed of modules developed and delivered separately but fully recognised by all the consortium partners) and fully recognised (please refer to section 4.2.2 of the Programme Guide and provide, for each of the degree awarding organisations, a description of the degree recognition/accreditation process and, if applicable, a date by which this process should be concluded);
- A.2.2 the type of degree(s) awarded and, if applicable, the measure taken or envisaged by the consortium to deliver a fully accredited and recognised joint degree (i.e. recognition/accreditation process in the countries concerned and date by which this process should be concluded);
- A.2.3 the extent to which ECTS mechanisms (including the “grading scale”) or other built-in mechanisms for the recognition of study periods based on or compatible with the ECTS are fully used;
- A.2.4 the extent to which the Diploma Supplement will be used and issued on behalf of the consortium (if possible, under the form of a Joint Diploma Supplement);
- A.2.5 the common standards and mechanisms developed by the consortium for the application, selection, admission and examination of students (European and Third-Country); the extent to which these mechanisms are transparent, fair and objective; the provisions to take into account the equity issues, exploring alternative ways of recruitment and considering the LLL requirements;
- A.2.6 The way tuition fees and other participations costs in the joint programme have been calculated (for Third-Country students and European students) and how they will be distributed among the participating institutions;

A.3 Course Management, visibility and sustainability measures (20% of the max. score)

Under this criterion applicants should specify/describe/justify,

- A.3.1 the nature and quality of the cooperation mechanisms established within the consortium (including the degree of institutionalisation, existence of an “EMMC agreement” between the partner, clearly defined and active role of all partners, established feed-back system, participation of external actors to the supervision boards, etc.);
- A.3.2 the way the scholarship scheme will be managed among the partners and in particular the financial management of individual grants;
- A.3.3 the level and quality of human, financial and other types of support provided by the consortium partners to the content-related and administrative aspects of the joint programme;
- A.3.4 the nature and quality of the course promotion measures taken by the consortium to ensure the appropriate visibility of the EMMC and reach out to potentially interested candidates (students and scholars);
- A.3.5 the consortium development and sustainability plan designed to ensure the proper implementation and continuity of the joint programme beyond Community funding (including implementation timeline, enrolment projections, mid and long term potential benefits for the institutions involved, etc.); the way this plan involves not only the consortium members but also other public and/or private organisations in the countries concerned (and in particular associated members);
- A.3.6 the sources and extent of complementary funding provided to the scholarship scheme (through additional part of full scholarships and, if applicable, the provision of funds to top up the difference between the joint programme fees and the maximum programme contribution to these fees);

A.4 Students’ services and Facilities (15% of the max. score)

Under this criterion applicants should specify/describe/justify,

- A.4.1 the nature and quality of the services provided by the consortium to host students / scholars (e.g. existence of an “international office”, housing facilities, coaching, activities aiming at social integration and networking, assistance with visas for third-country students/scholars); the extent to which specific services are available for grantees with a family or with special needs
- A.4.2 the nature and coverage extent of the insurance scheme in place to appropriately cover the to EM students against health and accident risks;
- A.4.3 the way the linguistic aspects of students’ mobility have been addressed (e.g. training facilities, mentorship, local language learning, etc.) and the specific language policy in place in the joint programme (e.g. integration, availability, costs coverage, recognition of the language courses in the joint programme); the way the consortium intends to meet the objective to offer students the possibility to use at least two different European language;
- A.4.4 the nature and comprehensiveness of the Student Agreement defining the joint course implementation rules and mechanisms as well as the mutual rights, obligations and responsibilities of the two parties for what concerns the academic, administrative and financial aspects of the student’s participation in the joint programme;
- A.4.5 the measures taken to facilitate networking among the Erasmus Mundus students and between these students and other students from the partner institutions

A.5 Quality Assurance and evaluation (15% of the max. score)

Under this criterion applicants should specify/describe/justify,

- A.5.1 the nature of the internal evaluation (by the institutions themselves, through student/scholars feed-back systems, etc.)
- A.5.2 the nature and extent of the external quality assurance (by e.g. national, international or professional bodies) envisaged; including, if applicable, the extent to which associated members are participating in this evaluation exercise (for what concerns both content and structure of the EMMC);

- A.5.3 the concrete measure taken by the EMMC consortium to ensure a balanced gender participation and the course, access to disadvantaged students and to students/scholars with disabilities or special needs.

B. Erasmus Mundus Joint Doctoral Programmes

B.1 Academic and research quality (20% of the max. score)

Under this criterion applicants should specify/describe/justify,

- B.1.1 the needs analysis (including in socio-economic terms) of the joint programme taking into account the current state of the art in science and technology terms;
- B.1.2 the objectives of the EMJD (including in terms of inter/multi-disciplinary, intersectorial and/or newly emerging fields);
- B.1.3 the joint programme's contribution to European education, research, excellence and competitiveness and its added value compared with existing programmes at national and international level
- B.1.4 the scientific quality of the education, training and research programme, including its originality and innovative aspects notably as regards research methodologies and approaches (incl. training activities in core and transferable skills, articulation between education / training activities and the research part, participation of industry/public sector, etc.);
- B.1.5 the extent to which the programme includes inter-sector and inter-organisation collaboration and mobility (such as placements) to better address societal and economical needs and the graduates' employability issue;
- B.1.6 the nature and quality of the expected innovative educational, scientific and technological outcomes, including in terms of skills and competences acquired;

B.2 Partnership experience and composition (20% of the max. score)

Under this criterion applicants should specify/describe/justify,

- B.2.1 the partners' (understood as both the institutions and the key academic, research and administrative staff) recognised capacity, expertise and experience to achieve the EMJD objectives;
- B.2.2 the diversity (in terms of countries / regions, types of organisation, etc.) and complementarity (in terms of education, training, research or dissemination/valorisation activities) of the consortium members;
- B.2.3 the partnership track records in terms of networking and cooperation activities (through their joint involvement in EU/International research and/or education projects); if relevant, the added value of third-country organisations to the EMJD objectives and content;
- B.2.4 the extent to which the partner teams demonstrate a high level of internationalisation (international staff, international activities, etc.);
- B.2.5 the role and appropriateness of the professional (economic/scientific/cultural) sector participation in terms of activities and responsibilities, and the way this participation is formalised in specific arrangements and agreements covering issues such as co-funding, co-supervision, intellectual property rights, publishing possibilities, quality assurance, etc.

B.3 European integration and functioning of the programme (20% of the max. score)

Under this criterion applicants should specify/describe/justify,

- B.3.1 the extent to which the EMJD programme is organised in a structured and integrated way ; exploiting current good-practices in terms of doctoral/ graduate/research schools or co-tutelle arrangements; providing a strong research environment capable to enhance excellence and international collaboration; ensuring full recognition - through ECTS or other built-in mechanisms - for all the training and research activities performed by the candidates;

- B.3.2 the relevance and appropriate organisation of the mandatory mobility periods of the candidates in the participating institutions;
- B.3.3 the common standards and mechanisms developed by the consortium for the application, selection, admission and examination of doctoral candidates (European and Third-Country), in order to ensure recruiting the best candidates; the extent to which these mechanisms are transparent, fair and objective; the provisions to take into account the equity issues, exploring alternative ways of recruitment and considering the LLL requirements;
- B.3.4 the quality of the joint mechanisms envisaged to ensure a high quality supervision and monitoring of the candidate activities;
- B.3.5 the appropriateness of the joint assessment procedures (including the exams for the taught part and the assessment and defence of the thesis) to ensure the highest quality of the outcomes; if relevant, the extent to which assessment committees include external representation chosen at international level and/or non academic experts; the extent to which assessment criteria include compulsory publication requirements and/or an evaluation of the potential contribution of the candidate's work to innovation.
- B.3.6 the kind and nature of the degree(s) awarded and and, if applicable, the measure taken or envisaged by the consortium to deliver a fully accredited and recognised joint degree;

B.4 Provisions for EMJD candidates and fellowship holders (20% of the max. score)

Under this criterion applicants should specify/describe/justify,

- B.4.1 the information and promotion strategy envisaged by the consortium to reach out potentially interested candidates and more particularly from third-countries;
- B.4.2 the quality and nature of the services provided by the consortium to host doctoral candidates (housing facilities, coaching, language courses, activities aiming at social integration, assistance with visas and social insurance); the extent to which specific services are available for grantees with a family or with special needs
- B.4.3 the way the linguistic aspects of candidates' mobility have been addressed (e.g. training facilities, mentorship, local language learning, etc.) and the specific language policy in place in the joint programme (e.g. integration, availability, costs coverage, recognition of the language courses in the joint programme); the way the consortium intends to meet the objective to offer candidates the possibility to use at least two different European language
- B.4.4 the extent to which administrative arrangements are foreseen to address the candidates' rights (including health care, social security and pension rights) and the extent to which employment contracts are used to appoint the candidates;
- B.4.5 the relevance of the measures taken to deliver the fellowship scheme, and in particular for the distribution of grantees between institutions and the financial management of fellowships;
- B.4.6 the measures taken by the consortium to ensure the candidate's career prospects and to monitor his/her career development once graduated;
- B.4.7 the nature and comprehensiveness of the Doctoral Candidate Agreement defining the joint course implementation rules and mechanisms as well as the mutual rights, obligations and responsibilities of the two parties for what concerns the academic, research, administrative and financial aspects of the candidate's participation in the joint programme; the extent to which the consortium adheres to and implements the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Good Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers;

B.5 Programme Management and Quality Assurance (20% of the max. score)

Under this criterion applicants should specify/describe/justify,

- B.5.1 the quality of the organisational arrangements and cooperation mechanisms within the consortium (degree of institutionalisation, financial and human resources allocated to the programme, existence of management and supervision board, clearly defined and active role of all partners, established feed-back system, existence of detailed partnership agreements covering the academic, scientific and administrative aspects of the Programme, etc.) and the specific role played by each of its members.

- B.5.2 The way participations costs in the joint programme have been calculated; if differences exist between Third-Country and European candidates, the reasons for such differences; in which way will these costs will be distributed among the participating institutions;
- B.5.3 the consortium development and sustainability plan designed to ensure the proper implementation and continuity of the joint programme beyond Community funding (including implementation timeline, enrolment projections, mid and long term potential benefits for the institutions involved, etc.); the way this plan involves not only the consortium members but also other public and/or private organisations in the countries concerned (and in particular associated members);
- B.5.4 the nature of the internal evaluation (by the institutions themselves, through candidates/scholars feed-back systems, etc.) and external quality assessment (by e.g. national, international or professional bodies) envisaged;
- B.5.5 the extent to which complementary funding possibilities have been explored and secured, in particular to provide additional (full or partial) fellowships to doctoral additional candidates and, if applicable, to top up the difference between the fixed programme contribution to the candidates participation costs and the actual cost for the consortium
- B.5.6 the way the consortium intends to address issues such as gender balance and the access to the programme by candidates with special needs.
