MY STORY	MARTA VETIER, STUDIED IN GREECE, HUNGARY AND THE UNITED KINGDOM  "My Erasmus Mundus years gave me two big gifts. One is a comprehensive knowledge of my subject - environmental sciences, policy and management. With brilliant professors from different parts of the world, and highly qualified colleagues of various backgrounds and origins, I had the opportunity to explore environmental issues from a number of perspectives, which is essential in this field. The fruitful discussions and debates we had on contentious issues not only increased our knowledge, but also forced us to come up with creative solutions that can fulfil all needs. The other gift Erasmus Mundus gave me is a change in the way I see the world, people and life in general. It taught me to communicate in a multicultural, multidisciplinary environment and gave me friends around the globe, faces to connect countries with and a strong network to rely on."
