MY STORY	JENNIFER LENHART, STUDIED IN GREECE, HUNGARY AND SWEDEN 	"I began by researching graduate programmes in Sweden, my mother's homeland. From this initial curiosity the door opened to an amazing academic adventure at some of the best universities in Europe. This provided an excellent opportunity to build relevant academic, professional and life skills, whilst learning about the various cultures and countries that define Europe. My fellow students have been my friends, but also my teachers. They challenged both my academic learning and how I perceive the world. Such lessons stick with you and motivate you to become a global thinker and actor."
