

CHRYSO CHRISTODOULOU

Co-founder of DigiPro Computer Consultants Ltd

Sector: ICT

District: Pafos

Nomination as an Ambassador

Chryso Christodoulou is the co-founder of DigiPro® Computer Consultants. During the past 21 years Chryso has been working as in Information Technology Educational Consultant, Researcher and Trainer. She holds a BSc Degree in Computer Science and an MA Degree in Educational Psychology. Chryso is the designer and developer of the FUNecole® Creative Learning Environment.

FUNecole® is recognized by European Commission and DG in Education as the number 1 best educational practice in innovation and creativity in all 27 EU countries. Chryso is the author and editor of 25 educational Books namely the FUNecole® Step by Step educational books. The FUNecole® books are translated in 4 languages and are used by numerous public and private schools in EU countries. Chryso is commissioned as an external educational expert and evaluator by the European Commissions' Institute for Prospective Technological Studies IPTS on various educational Research projects. She additionally leads the Research and Development Department of FUNecole® Research Institute and coordinates European funded projects that include participants from various Ministries of Education, EU universities, pedagogical Institutes and private schools. Every year she delivers hundreds of hours of training and consulting in various subjects European countries in USA and Africa. Chryso is the main trainer in service training workshops that are funded by European National Agencies and are targeted in the development of Master trainers and teachers thought-out European Union countries. Chryso Christodoulou's work is published by scientific publications such as the IEEE and the eChallenges 2010 conference proceedings.

About the Company

Digipro® was established in Cyprus in 1990. Digipro® is a learning design organization involved in educational program research and development using technology as a platform for Enhanced Learning. The mission statement of the Institute is to foster the foundation of innovative ICT enhanced creative learning environments that inspire excellence in education.

Digipro® constitutes of two major departments a Learning Design Consultancy department & the FUNecole® Research Institute.

Digipro® encompasses a wealth of expertise in Information & Communication Technologies, Web development, project management and ICT consulting. Digipro® is focusing all efforts on the provision of excellent services that offer real value to all customers. Digipro's services integrate processes, people, ideas and work to create wholly new kinds of business designs that offer true business value. The unique tools and methodologies that Digipro® has developed are applicable to a virtually unlimited number of business issues and contexts.

The Digipro® Dynamic Research Team is participating on a number of European projects and constantly attends numerous seminars and conferences in Europe and the USA. Digipro has a track record of 21 years training experience of all ages and levels of study, from six years old upwards. Digipro® is the developer of FUNecole® learning environment which is included as number one best practice by JRC, IPTS¹ & DG Education & Culture in their comprehensive report on innovation and creativity in education 2010.

Digipro® is the publisher of the FUNecole® Step By Step educational portfolio series. Digipro as the sole owner of FUNecole® participates in numerous educational fairs and conferences in order to expand the usage of the product in schools.

FUNecole® Research Institute

The FUNecole® Research Institute strives for the development of Educational Tools and Pedagogical Curricula for children to develop lifelong learning skills, develop thinking skills, promote cultural diversity and personal cultural integrity, and promote active citizenship in the European Union (and the world) and the development of social and character skills. The Institute aims to provide the 21st century technologically confident students with the tools necessary to succeed in a culturally diverse, technologically charged modern day society. The Institute also aims to develop thinking skills and a 'learning to learn' attitude in students that will hopefully prepare successfully for future challenges of journey of life. The Research

¹ Innovation and Creativity in Education and Training in the EU Member States 2009

Institute is supported by Ministries of Education and funded exclusively by Digipro®
Computer Consultants LTD.

Further Information

www.digipro.com.cy

chryso@digipro.com.cy