

Dorothea Hecker Sporleder & Hecker Hochbau GmbH Commercial Director

Sector	Construction industry
Region	Saxony-Anhalt
Employees	55-62
Nomination as an Ambassador	Dorothea Hecker has been active in a non-typical business branch for women for over 20 years. She is the commercial director of the company Sporleder & Hecker Hochbau. During these years she has also gained experience in management and trade but also in human resources. The company has offered apprenticeships in all areas of the business for many years. is educating and preparing young people in all branches of the business. 12 years ago, Dorothea Hecker founded a women business association in Quedlinburg. Here, women who are self-employed or in leading positions meet to discuss their business issues and to take part in workshops etc. She also takes part at the exhibition in Magdeburg with other women active in building industry under the motto: “Women build differently”. Women often solve problems in a different way, i. e., more precisely or goal-oriented. Dorothea Hecker has two children and two grandchildren. She thinks it is important to show women to be independent. Independence means making your own decisions and to take responsibility not only for yourself but also for the employees or their families.
About the company	The company Sporleder & Hecker Hochbau GmbH was founded in 1991. The company carries out building and renovating projects, mostly in Saxony-Anhalt, Lower-Saxony and Thuringia. Here the company is known for efficiency, quality and good time management. They are renovating historical building fabrics and by adding new buildings, the company combines old and new together. The client gets help from the start and the company can help with contracts and building applications till the completion
Further information	www.sporlederhecker.de