Nomination as an Ambassador	Ursula Maier is a master joiner and famous interior designer. She took over the business from her father in 1980. She has now been active in this field which is dominated by men for more than 30 years. She thinks that crafts have future in Germany.
About the company	Rewarding manufacture of furniture: The joinery itself was founded 1910 by Hermann Maier in Stuttgart West. Ursula Maier heads the company since 1980 and changed its focus to interior design and architecture. Sarah Maier in the fourth generation overtook in 2007 and started to concentrate on international markets. In 2010, the company celebrated its 100 year anniversary.
