

Beatrice Postleb
punktgenau
office- and marketing assistance
founder and owner

| | |
|------------------------------------|---|
| Sector | Call Centre, office- and marketing service for companies |
| Region | Thuringia |
| Employees | 3 |
| Nomination as an Ambassador | Beatrice Postleb started her own business in December 2001. Since then, networking has constantly played an essential role. It is not always easy, especially for young women, to compete against older businessmen with more experiences. To be a mother and self-employed woman is not easy. But this challenge brings Beatrice Postleb further. To be independent means for her to have courage, power, stamina and the right balance between career and family. To stand up after a failure and never give up – that is the message Beatrice Postleb would like to pass on. Beatrice Postleb is a mother and she is happy to be able to manage her job and family. |
| About the company | The company Büroservice Postleb was founded by Beatrice Postleb in December 2001. She concentrated on efficiency and help for her clients. After a while the company name changed into “punktgenau – office- and marketing assistance” with the company focussing on the support clients’ sales departments individually and precisely. Today Beatrice Postleb as an owner of the company is responsible for project management and coordination of the projects. |
| Further information | www.punktgenau-assistenz.de |