

Theresa Delia - Profile

Theresa is a Maltese National and is the CEO – Chief Executive Officer of Business Meetings Malta Limited (BMM), a Maltese registered Limited Liability company which she set up in 2008. The company is a venue searching company which is also a licensed Destination Management (DMC) Company. Business Meetings Malta also organizes golf schools and golf tournaments and is keen in developing this niche market within Europe. Fluent in language skills, for many years she was one of Malta's foremost licensed guides, specialising firstly in culture then in conference meetings carefully selecting venues for all types of business meetings. She later became PR executive to the Minister for Culture and Education and later still assistant PA to the Chairman at Air Malta where she could apply her organizational skills.

In 1997 she successfully gained her M.Phil from the University of the West of England, Bristol, with her thesis based upon examining the competitiveness of Malta as a destination for conference and incentive tourism. Since that time, she became an associate with the Welsh based firm Stevens and Associates looking after their interests in the eastern Mediterranean region as well as Malta. Moreover, for a number of years, Theresa was a board member of the Hotels and Catering Establishment Board and subsequently at the Malta Tourist Authority's Enforcement Directorate responsible for setting and maintaining standards within the industry.

Like many other married women in the Mediterranean she faced the typical challenges of organizing her family life with her work commitments. She has two children and an ever changing selection of domestic pets. Always strongly motivated in taking on and adapting with a smile to the many different situations that life presents Theresa has managed to achieve her goals and is now looking forward to assisting other aspiring female entrepreneurs.

With a reputation for professionalism, effectiveness and flair, Theresa strongly believes in that spirit of enterprise and commitment that has inspired her to start Business Meetings Malta. Her past experiences, primarily as a working mother and entrepreneur, have helped her to develop those valuable skills that can add real value to the success of any business and sporting event.
