Nomination as an Ambassador

To be a young woman that lands in the portuguese tourism bussiness isn't easy. In fact it isn't easy at all to be a woman in the general portuguese bussiness world!

Bárbara Silva worked in several different areas until she realised that, welcoming people, was what she always wanted to work with. Once she decided that Porto was the perfect city to open her own hostel she joined with one of her university good friends and start making it happen!

When you're a bussiness woman life gets faster, you need to be there for it and not just on labour hours. You have a lot to take care of everyday and it's absolutely a full-time job but it pays all the hard work you put on it! New things come to you all the time, you have to deal with all kind of challenges and you will find yourself at the end of the day tired but feeling complete because that's your bussines, that's what you love to do.

Bárbara main reasons to be a part of Female Enterpreneurship Ambassador Network is to show all the portuguese woman that no mather how hard it is, it's great to be a bussiness woman and be free to work for your clients satisfaction.

About the company

Porto Downtown Hostel offers you all the comfort of your own home when you're out and you will feel the good vibes from the moment you arrive. Our young, energetic and multilingual team of locals (staff) will help you find activities suited to your tastes and interests, so you can have a memorable and wonderful experience!

Raising awareness

Bárbara believes it's very important to pass the experience to other women that are think of starting their own bussiness and don't know where to start or wich step tehy should give first. She believes that the supporting network will help everyone involved in it.

Further information

Some may say that the world is full of dreams and that you should keep

	both feet on the ground, keep your head over your shoulders and stick to that, feeling happy for all that you have accomplished. I believe that is more than that that will keep you alive and not just living! To have one foot in the ground is enough because you'll need the other to take the next step, the one that can take you higher, make you happier and give you bigger dreams to dream with.
