Nicky Gray is the North East Young Entrepreneur of the year, setting up her business Kiki's Kabin at just age 20 she takes great pride in spotting the entrepreneurs of the future. Since opening her business in 2006 she has focused on growing the business and becoming a well known role model in the region. Nicky has spent the last few years supporting people into business through her role with TEDCO and as a volunteer and mentor for the Prince's Trust helping many young people realise enterprise is the way for them.

Young Achiever of the Year runs three multi-award winning businesses. She is now running a very successful soft play area and cafe Kiki's Kabin in North Shields. She opened the first North East hair salon for children, Fidgets in Whitley Bay. After winning the Barclays take one small step competition. Nicky's future plans are as exciting as her busy business lifestyle.
