

Public consultation - Update for units of measurement directive

Subject : DTI Consultation on Units of Measurement Directive (80/181/EEC)

The Justices' Clerks' Society is of the view that the existing derogations for the UK are reasonable and appropriate and should be continued. The Society is grateful for the opportunity to respond to the above consultation.

Yours faithfully

Sid Brighton
Chief Executive
UK