

Gelu DUMINICA

Gelu Duminica (born in 1977) is the executive director of "Impreuna" Agency for Community Development, a Roma NGO base in Bucharest. Impreuna Agency is one of the most important Roma NGO from Romania having active programs in 103 Roma communities from 24 counties of Romania. Main activities of Impreuna are dealing with straitening the Roma civil movement from Romania using community tools, facilitating Roma access on the labour market, capacity building of Roma NGO's and technical assistance for Roma CBO's to became more active on the local level.

Gelu is PhD student in Sociology at the University of Bucharest, finish MA studies in European Social Policies and Public Diplomacy and have 7 years experience in Research area. In the last 10 years he publish, together with Impreuna Agency research team, 14 studies and reports dealing with Roma issues (employment, education, housing and public policies) and coordinate several projects dealing with Roma minority social inclusion funded by EU, WB, Soros, GMF, UN etc. He has extensive experience in Project management, Community development and M&E.