

Cristi MIHALACHE

Cristi Mihalache is currently Project Manager of a ESF-funded project started in September 2010 for the Roma Education Fund Romania Foundation. Previously, he has been working as a consultant on EU structural funds for the Roma Education Fund for the last three years, including one of secondment to the Managing Authority for the Operational Programme Human Resources Development of the Romanian Ministry of Labour. His experience included working for the Open Society Institute Budapest and for the European Roma Rights Centre, as well as a series of Technical Assistance PHARE project on issues related to social inclusion of vulnerable groups, including Roma. He is a public administration graduate, as has a MA in human rights from the Central European University.