DG Research and Innovation,
European Commission

Hereby, the Moldovan scientific community represented by the Supreme Council for Science and Technological Development of the Academy of Sciences of Moldova (ASM), welcomes the initiative of the European Commission and the provisions stated in the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers adopted on 11 March 2005.

Following the association of Moldova to the Seventh Framework Programme of the European Community for research, technological development and demonstration activities (2007-2013) starting with January 1, 2012 and joining the EURAXESS Services Network, our commitment to the Charter and Code's principles will advance Moldova's integration into the European Research Area, creating a proper environment for national and foreign researchers.

The endorsement is in line with the national research policy aiming at making researcher's career more attractive and at enhancing the quality of research and innovation.

By subscribing to the Charter and the Code principles, we commit ourselves to applying the stated principles to the human resources management, the goal of which is to assure an efficient career development, and a high status of the researchers in the society.

Yours Faithfully,

President of the Academy of Sciences of Moldova Academician

Gheorghe DUCA
