1	Nature of the tasks:
----------	-----------------------------

Eurostat unit C4 is in charge of the harmonised consumer price indices, house price indices and purchasing power parities. The statistics produced by C4 are key to economic and monetary policy. Our headline indicators, in particular the inflation rate published each month, get high attention by the media, financial markets, decision makers and the public at large.

The work of the unit covers the development of concepts and methods as well as collection, processing, dissemination and analysis of the statistics under our responsibility.

The vacant job is in the team responsible for the harmonised index of consumer prices (HICP). The job holder is expected to work on the wide range of methodological issues linked to the HICP.

The tasks include in particular:

- Analysing and assessing methodological questions
- Contributing to development projects regarding the methodology
- Drafting of methodological documents
- Participating actively in various task forces and other meetings on the HICP

¹ These mentions are given on an indicative basis only (Art.4 of the SNE Decision).

The job requires a sound background in statistics and solid experience in the theory and practice of consumer price indices, notably the HICP. Team spirit and flexibility are expected.

The job offers the opportunity to work closely with colleagues in national statistical offices in the Member States, the European Central Bank, and international organisations.

2 Main qualifications:

a) Eligibility criteria

The following eligibility criteria are to be fulfilled by the candidate in order to be seconded to the Commission. Consequently, the candidate who does not fulfil one of them will be automatically eliminated from the selection process.

- Professional experience : at least three years' experience in administrative, legal, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions which can be regarded as equivalent to those of function groups AD;
- Seniority : at least one year by your employer, that is having worked for an eligible employer (as described in Art. 1 of the SNE decision) on a permanent or contract basis for at least 12 months before the secondment;
- Linguistic skills: thorough knowledge of one of the EU languages and a satisfactory knowledge of another EU language to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties. An SNE from a non-member country must produce evidence of a thorough knowledge of one EU language necessary for the performance of his duties.

b) Selection criteria

Diploma:

- university degree or
- professional training or professional experience of an equivalent level in the field(s): economics, statistics or mathematics

Professional experience: comprehensive experience in the area of consumer price statistics; experience with the work ongoing at European level

Language(s) necessary for the performance of duties: English

3 Submission of applications and selection procedure

Candidates should send their application according to the Europass CV format (<http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/documents/curriculum-vitae>) in English, French or German only to the Permanent Representation / Diplomatic Mission to the EU of their country, which will forward the applications to the competent services of the Commission within the deadline fixed by the latter. Not respecting this procedure or deadlines will automatically invalidate the application.

Candidates are required not to add other documents (such as copy of passport, copy of degrees or certificate of professional experience, etc). If necessary, these will be requested at a later stage.

Candidates will be informed of the follow-up of their application by the unit concerned.

4 | Conditions of the secondment

The secondment will be governed by the Commission Decision C(2008)6866 of 12/11/2008 laying down rules on the secondment to the Commission of national experts and national experts in professional training (SNE Decision). This decision is available on http://ec.europa.eu/civil_service/job/sne/index_en.htm.

The SNE will remain employed and remunerated by his/her employer during the secondment. He/she will equally remain covered by the national social security.

Unless for cost-free SNEs, allowances may be granted by the Commission to SNEs fulfilling the conditions provided for in Art. 17 of the SNE decision.

During the secondment, SNEs are subject to confidentiality, loyalty and absence of conflict of interest obligations, as provided for in Art. 6 and 7 of the SNE Decision.

If any document is inexact, incomplete or missing, the secondment may be cancelled.

5 | Processing of personal data

The selection, secondment and termination of the secondment of a national expert requires the Commission (the competent services of DG HR, DG BUDG, PMO and the DG concerned) to process personal data concerning the person to be seconded, under the responsibility of the Head of Unit of DG HR.B4. The data processing is subject to the SNE Decision as well as the Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data.

Data is kept by the competent services for 10 years after the secondment (2 years for not selected or not seconded experts).

Data subjects may exercise their right of access to data concerning them and the right to rectify such data by applying to the controller, in accordance with Article 13 of the Regulation on the processing of personal data. The candidate may send complaints to the European Data Protection Supervisor edps@edps.europa.eu.

To the attention of candidates from third countries: your personal data can be used for necessary checks.
