

Contents

5

25

36

42

44

49

4 Editorial

HEALTH THEME

5 1994-2005: a prominent decade for statistics on health and safety at EU level

12 Partnership on public health statistics

17 Facts and figures on health

19 Health statistics – Doing the same in different ways

25 Improving information and knowledge for the development of public health

27 Safety first!

30 “Comparisons with other Member States a must”

32 Monitor, alert and prevent: the tasks of the French Health Monitoring Institute

34 Focus on the “Injuries” unit

36 Towards harmonization of health statistics in Europe

38 The OECD Health Division – Four strands on new agenda

NEWS FROM EUROSTAT

42 Joaquín Almunia Economic and monetary affairs Commissioner

44 Eurostat’s Director-General wants stronger cooperation within the ESS

46 Quality top of the agenda for Eurostat’s deputy Director-General

48 News in brief...

PORTRAIT OF A MEMBER STATE

49 “More Statistical than Office...”

53 A young graduate sees a future with the Office

NEWS FROM MEMBER STATES

54 A granary for agricultural data

56 Do you have dissemination problems? Don’t worry, PC-Axis comes to the rescue!!

57 Modernising the Statistical Infrastructure in the UK Office for National Statistics

59 eSTATISTIK.core: Digitally linking statistics and accounting

61 Statistisches Bundesamt’s new statistics shop open

62 Household panel surveys and international comparability