

Contents

Foreword	3
Abstract	4
Contents	5
Executive Summary	9
Introduction	13
1. Demographic trends	17
Introduction	18
Past, present and future demographic developments: children and young people	19
Changes in numbers of children and young people: causes and consequences	30
Conclusions: What consequences from a declining share of children and young people?	39
Data sources and availability	39
2. Children and young people in family and society	41
Introduction	36
Family composition and household structure	42
Foreign-born children and young people in the EU	54
Subjective wellbeing	57
Young people's participation in society	62
Data sources and availability	68
3. Health	41
Introduction	70
Life expectancy and mortality rates	71
Causes of death	77
Health status	85
Health determinants	93
Data sources and availability	102

4. Education 103

Introduction	104
Childcare attendance and participation in education	105
More skills, more languages — increasing your opportunities in the EU	118
Quality of childcare and school life	130
Data sources and availability	136

5. Labour market: access and participation 137

Introduction	138
Education and employment patterns	138
School-to-work transition	146
Youth employment	150
Youth unemployment	159
Data sources and availability	164
Context	164

6. Living conditions for children 165

Introduction	166
Poverty and social exclusion	166
Conclusions: what does the future hold for child poverty and social exclusion in the EU?	190
Data sources and availability	190

7. Children and young people in the digital world 191

Introduction	192
A digital age divide	192
Information and communications technology skills	199
Youth online: a way of life	202
Conclusions: what future for young people in the digital world?	208
Data sources and availability	208

Abbreviations and acronyms

209

Geographical aggregates and countries

209

Units of measurement

209

Abbreviations

209