

PRESS INFORMATION

Curriculum Vitae: Zsuzsanna Jakab

1 March 2005 – present

Director, European Centre for Disease Prevention and Control

Zsuzsanna Jakab is since 1 March 2005 Director of the European Centre for Disease Prevention and Control (ECDC) in Stockholm, Sweden.

September 2002 – April 2005

Ministry of Health, Social and Family Affairs, Hungary

Secretary of State (senior civil servant)

Permanent Secretary of State, responsible for the administration and management of the Ministry of Health, Social and Family Affairs (September 2002 to October 2003). Then Secretary of State responsible for the administration and management of EU integration, Hungary's national public health program to and international relations in the health area.

October 2000 – September 2002

WHO Regional Office for Europe, Denmark

Director of Administration and Management Support

Responsible for the work of the governing bodies of the overall strategic and operational planning, monitoring and evaluation; supervising the work of the WHO Collaborating Centres in Europe; legal matters and administration.

March 1997 – October 2002

WHO Regional Office for Europe, Denmark

Several positions during this period, including:

Co-ordinator, Division of Information, Evidence and Communication

Director, Country Health Development

Acting Director, Country Health Development

Co-ordinator, Policy and Country Programme, EUROHEALTH Programme

December 1975-December 1991

Ministry of Health and Social Welfare, Hungary

Several positions during this period, including:

Director General of the Department for International Relations (1989-91)

Deputy Director General for the Department of International Relations (1988-89)

Director of the Division for International Organizations (1983-88)

Deputy Director of the Division for International Organizations (1982-83)

Civil servant in charge of WHO collaboration (1975-82)