

CURRICULUM VITAE

- ◆ Name: Carere, Angelo
- ◆ Nationality: Italian
- ◆ Date of Birth: 26/09/1938
- ◆ Education: Biologist
- ◆ Dates, Degrees, College Name(s):
 - ◆ 1962 Degree in Biological Sciences, University of Rome
 - ◆ 1969 Post Doctorate in Genetics, University of Rome
- ◆ Current position:
 - ◆ Director of the Laboratory “Comparative Toxicology and Ecotoxicology” (Istituto Superiore di Sanità), 1988-present
 - ◆ President of the European Environmental Mutagen Society, 2001-present
 - ◆ Member of the EC Scientific Committee on Food (SCF), 1989-present
 - ◆ Chairman of the SCF “Contaminants” Working Group, 1997-present
- ◆ Former positions:
 - ◆ Head of the research units “Microbial Genetics” and “Mutagenesis and Carcinogenesis” at the Istituto Superiore di Sanità
 - ◆ Project leader or Co-ordinator for many years of the EC Project on “Genetic effects of environmental chemicals”
 - ◆ Member of several Advisory Committees at national and international level (CEC, WHO, OECD) on regulatory toxicology, including safety evaluation of pesticides, food additives and contaminants, pharmaceutical drugs, cosmetics, industrial chemicals and environmental pollutants, with special emphasis to their mutagenic and carcinogenic properties.
- ◆ Research and Advice Interest:
 - ◆ Microbial Genetics, Chemical mutagenesis and carcinogenesis are the main disciplines of Angelo Carere. In these scientific fields he has produced more than 100 papers in international peer reviewed journals.