

Professor Bevan Moseley

Degrees

- 1955     BSc., University of Bristol, Microbiology
- 1961     PhD., University of London, Bacteriology
- 1965     PhD., University of Cambridge, Radiation biology

Career

- 1955-58   Assistant Experimental officer, Chemical Research laboratory,
             Teddington
- 1958-61   Research Assistant, Guy's Hospital Medical School, London
- 1961-67   Research Assistant, Molteno Institute, Cambridge
- 1967-68   Medical Research Council Travelling Fellow at Oak Ridge National Laboratory. Tennessee, U.S.A.
- 1968-88   Honorary Fellow, then lecturer and Senior Lecturer, University of Edinburgh, Taught microbial genetics; Research topic DNA repair
- 1988-94   Head of Institute of Food Research, Reading Laboratory
- 1994       Consultant

Committees

- 1980-88   Member U.K. Advisory Committee on Irradiated and Novel Foods
- 1988-98   Member U. K. Advisory Committee on Novel Food and Processes
- 1995-99   Member U.K. Advisory Committee on Releases to the Environment
- 1997-00   Member EU Scientific Committee on Food and Chairman of the Novel
             Foods Working Group