

CURRICULUM VITAE

- Name: Le Neindre, Pierre
- Nationality: French
- Date of birth: 19/07/1945
- Education: Agricultural engineer
- Dates, Degrees, College Name(s):
  - Agricultural engineer (INA Paris), 1969.
  - Doctor. ès-Sciences (University Rennes I), 1984.
- Current position: Scientist of the French National Institute of Agriculture (INRA). Responsible in INRA for questions related to the welfare of experimental and farm animals.
- Former positions:
  - Head of a research unit for several years.
  - Involved in several French groups dealing with the welfare of the animals.
  - President of the International Society of Applied Ethology in 1997-1998.
- Other activities:
  - Ethology is the main discipline of Pierre Le Neindre. He develops studies on the social environment of the ruminants (cattle and sheep) and on the effect of this social environment (mother young relationships, man animal relationships) on the adaptation of the animals to their environment. and on their welfare. He is in charge for INRA of questions related with the welfare of farm and laboratory animals.