

COMMENTS ON THE DRAFT REPORT OF THE EU INSPECTION TEAM ON EVALUATING EVALUATE THE MONITORING OF RESIDUES IN AQUACULTURE PRODUCTS IN VIETNAM (FROM 11 TO 20 SEPTEMBER 2012)

| TT | Findings/evaluations of the inspection team | NAFIQAD's proposals | Reasons |
|----|---|--|---|
| 1. | Conclusions, Para 3, Page 6 - "The aquaculture and honey RMPs comply with the minimum requirements of Council Directive 96/23/EC." - "Publication of the aquaculture RMP before all samples have been taken, indicating the areas and farmed species to be sampled, does not comply with the requirements of Council Directive 96/23/EC that sampling must be unforeseen and unexpected and compromises the effectiveness of the RMP in detecting potential misuse of veterinary medicinal products." | - "The aquaculture and honey RMPs basically comply with the minimum requirements of Council Directive 96/23/EC" - "Publication of the aquaculture RMP in the southern region before all samples have been taken, indicating the areas and farmed species to be sampled, does not comply with the requirements of Council Directive 96/23/EC that sampling must be unforeseen and unexpected and compromises the effectiveness of the RMP in detecting potential misuse of veterinary medicinal products." | To be appropriate to inspection result |

COMMENTS ON ALEBETIYUKA MEDICINE PRODUCTS
 THE MONITORING OF RESIDUES AND CONTAMINANTS IN VIETNAM'S AQUACULTURE PRODUCTS INCLUDING MONITORING OF RESIDUES AND CONTAMINANTS IN VIETNAM'S AQUACULTURE PRODUCTS INCLUDING REGIONAL OF THE COMPETENT AUTHORITIES OF AUSTRIA TO THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF BELOW REF